4. MEMBER OF ORGANISATIONS AND AWARDS

- 4.1 Member of the Board of the SA Broadcasting Corporation, 1 April 1972 – March 1987. Vice-Chairman, 1982–1987.
4.2 Member of the Commission of Inquiry relating to matters concerning the Coloured Population Group (The Erica Theron Commission), 1973 – 1976, Chairman of the Workgroup on Economy and Labour. Author of six of the 22 chapters in the Theron Commission Report, 1976.
4.3 Member of the Economic Advisory Board of the Prime Minister/State President, 1979 – 1985.
4.4 Member of the Broeksma Commission on health conditions in Namibia, 1981 – 1982.
4.5 Member of the Commission investigating the position of urban blacks in Port Elizabeth/Uitenhage, 1979 – 1980.
4.6 Board member of the company Wending Uitgewery (Publishers) that published the “alternative” (i.e. anti-mainstream) newspaper, Vrye Weekblad (“Free Weekly”) in Afrikaans from 1988 to 1994. This weekly newspaper was funded by foreign grants, mainly from Scandinavian countries. I was among others responsible for a fortnightly column “Tuynhuys Monitor”. It was a commentary on the activities of the State Presidents.

- 4.7 Founding member of the Democratic Party and its first economic advisor, 1989 – 1990. No longer active in party politics.
- 4.8 Received the Stals Award for Economics from Die Suid-Afrikaanse Akademie vir Wetenskap en Kuns (i.e. from the Afrikaners’ South African Academy for Science and Arts) in 1992. The award was an acknowledgement for my publications on Economics in Afrikaans.
- 4.9 A member of the “Task Force on Economic Matters” of the South African Council of Churches (SACC) from 1991 to 1996. In 1996 the SACC and other church organisations founded the Ecumenical Service for Socio-Economic Transformation (ESSET). ESSET addressed problems of poverty, inequality and social injustice in South Africa. I was a founding member and an advisor to ESSET until 2001.
- 4.10 Chairman of Discussion Group 85. The group was founded in 1985 by senior professors at the University of Stellenbosch and played an active role in the period 1987 to 1994 in agitating for an acceleration of the reform process. The group held in-depth discussions with political leaders (including the State President and several ministers) over the entire spectrum of key reform issues.
- 4.11 A Trustee of the Board of Arts and Culture South Africa (ACSA) founded by the ANC Cultural Conference in 1993. ACSA was dissolved in 1995.
- 4.12 Gave evidence in 1997 on request before two Special Hearings of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) on the role of the SABC and on the role of the Business sector during the Apartheid period.
- 4.13 One of five finalists for a special award granted by the Human Science Research Council in 1996 to persons and institutions that have made exceptional contributions to research.

5. BOOKS PUBLISHED

- 5.1 Terreblanche, S.J. Die Industriële Groeiproses 1770–1940 (“The Industrial Growth Process 1770-1940”) Kosmo-publishers, Stellenbosch, 1967, 320 pages. A book in Afrikaans in which I compared processes of industrialisation in Great Britain, France, Germany and the United States.
- 5.2 Terreblanche, S.J. Die Doelwit van ’n Hoë Ekonomiese Groeikoers (“The purpose of a high economic growth rate”), Academica, Pretoria, 1973, 142 pages. A book in Afrikaans which is a critical analysis of a high economic growth rate as the sole purpose of an economic system.
- 5.3 Terreblanche, S.J. Vernuwings en Herskikking (“Renewal and Realignment”), Tafelberg, Cape Town, 1973, 167 pages. A book in Afrikaans in which I made a plea for comprehensive political and economic reform in South Africa.
- 5.4 Terreblanche, S.J. Chroniese Gemeenskapsarmoede (“Chronic community poverty”), Tafelberg, Cape Town, 1977, 1861 pages. A book in Afrikaans on the phenomena of a sub-culture of poverty among the Coloured population group. I wrote it after I served for three years as a member of the Commission investigating matters concerning the Coloured population group (1973-1976).
- 5.5 Terreblanche, S.J. Die Wording van die Westerse Ekonomie (“The Making of the economic order of the Western World”), Academica, Pretoria 1980, reprinted in 1982, 307 pages. A book in Afrikaans presenting a systemic modeling of the economic and political history of the Western World since 500. In the final chapter I used the “model” developed in the book to demonstrate why South Africa cannot resist the process of modernisation and democratisation.
- 5.6 Terreblanche, S.J. Politieke Ekonomie en Sosiale Welvaart (“Political Economy and Social Welfare”), Academica, Pretoria, 1986, 349 pages. A largely philosophical book in Afrikaans on the purpose of the political and economic systems of a country. In the final chapter I applied my analysis to the South African case arguing that the political and economic systems of a country should not be used to promote only the interest of a white minority, but should be instrumental in promoting the interests or social welfare of the total population.

- 5.7 Terreblanche, S.J. Geskiedenis van die Westerse Ekonomie ("History of the Western Economy"). Academica, Pretoria and Cape Town, 1988, 161 pages. A narrative about economic systems from the Greek City States to the birth of Democratic Capitalism).
- 5.8 Terreblanche, S.J. Die Geskiedenis van Opeenvolgende Ekonomiese Stelsels ("A History of Successive Economic Systems"). Southern Publishers, Johannesburg, 1994, 230 pages. A book in Afrikaans for first year students on the economic and political history of the Western world.
- 5.9 Terreblanche, S.J. Political Perspective on past empowerment practices in South Africa A research document commissioned by the Development Bank of Southern Africa for the Black Economic Empowerment Commission (BEECOM). May have been published by BEECOM, 1999.
- 5.10 Terreblanche, S.J. A History of Inequality in South Africa: 1652 – 2002. University of Natal Press, Pietermaritzburg, 2002, 494 pages (7 reprints). The book analyses the work of numerous historians on inequality and exploitation in South Africa. Over one thousand citations in the academic literature.
- 5.11 Terreblanche, S.J. Lost in Transformation. 2012. KMM Review Publishing Company, Johannesburg, 144 pages. Shortlisted for Sunday Times Alan Paton non-fiction Literature Award 2013.
- 5.12 Terreblanche, S.J. Verdeelde Land ("A Country Divided"). Tafelberg Uitgewers, Kaapstad, 2014. An extended version of Lost in Transformation, 211 pages. [In Afrikaans].
- 5.12 Terreblanche, S.J. Western Empires, Christianity and the Inequalities between the West and the Rest, 1300 – 2010. Penguin Books, 2014. 562 pages.
